

The jails were filled Friday as members of the community "served time" in two mock jails that were set up at Day's and Safeway's to hold desperate members of the valley until bail could be raised. All of the money that was raised was donated to Alzheimer's Disease and related disorders foundation. The fund raiser was sponsored by the Heber Valley Care Center.